Reflection for the First Sunday of Advent, Nov. 28, 2021*Jeremiah 33:14-16*Psalm 25:4-5, 8-9, 10, 14*1 Thessalonians 3:12—4:2*Luke 21:25-28, 34-36

Happy New Year! As we close out the liturgical year of 2021 and begin the new one, we look forward both in our minds and in our readings for this weekend. Jeremiah talks of the fulfillment of the promise of David, a time that will bring with it justice and mercy. Paul's letter to the Thessalonians offers words of hope that our hearts will be strong and our actions blameless when the day of the Lord ensues. In the Gospel from Luke, Jesus warns us about being prepared for the coming of the Son of Man, a time where those who have lived lives of justice and love will be rewarded and those who have lived lives that are focused on their appetites will receive the consequences of ignoring the love of God and neighbor that we are called to.

This week, we ought to recognize the transitory nature of our lives. As we look back on this past year, we recognize that there has been great suffering and turmoil caused by the pandemic and a number of political and secular events. As with every new year, we can evaluate the events of our individual lives and see if we were loyal to the teachings of Jesus or if we need to make some changes. Among the questions we can ask of ourselves we can ponder those qualities mentioned by Paul and Jesus. Have we conducted ourselves in a way that is pleasing to God? Have we avoided letting our hearts become drowsy from the anxieties of life? If we are true believers in the Lord, the answers to these questions will be "yes." As we begin the new liturgical year, it is important for us to continually consider these questions because the path that Jesus wants us to walk is not the easiest one, but it is rewarding to walk it.

Keep the faith,
 Deacon Dare

HOPE Appeal 2021
“Your Are The Salt Of The Earth”

Thank you to all who have pledged their support to the HOPE Appeal ministries, programs, and services that benefit so many throughout Central New York, including many in our own parish.

Together, when we pledge our gift to the Annual HOPE Appeal, we are giving thanks to Christ for the innumerable gifts we’ve been given and helping our friends and neighbors who benefit each year from the diocesan good works funded through our annual appeal. If you are not able to make the minimum gift of $325.00, please give your best gift. If we all give, we will easily meet Holy Cross’ 2021 HOPE Appeal goal of $92,649.06. If we exceed our 2021 HOPE Appeal goal, 100 percent of the excess will be returned directly to our parish. We plan to use these funds to continue the mission of Holy Cross Parish.

Please prayerfully consider your gift to this year’s HOPE Appeal. Bring your completed pledge card to Mass and drop it in the box along with your weekly contribution or mail it by the office. If you would rather pledge your gift online you may do so at syrdio.org. We would like to wrap up this year’s drive by the beginning of December.

A Family Perspective:

At this time of the year we are very conscious of our family as we make preparations for Christmas. Today's gospel warns us not to be consumed by all the consumer activity. This Advent appreciates the gift of people in your life. The best gift this season might be your appreciation of others.
