

Holy Cross Altar Servers kicked off the summer at a Syracuse Mets game. We are so grateful to these young people for serving faithfully and reverently throughout the year. Special thanks to Fr. Matt, Deacon Dare, and Seminarian Ben for setting it up. If you know a student or child, interested in Altar Server, get in touch with Fr. Matt. Any student who has received their First Communion is eligible to be on our Altar Server team.

A Family Perspective

Children learn by watching us. Do they see you helping others like the Good Samaritan, or do they see you avoiding others like the Levite in today's Gospel?

Worry more about what your children see in YOUR LIFE than what they see on TV.

In reponse to a number of requests, this weekend is also "Piano Sunday". We read in the gospel the Parable of the Good Samaritan. Jesus chose to have the central character a Samaritan, unlikely because Samaritans were essentially enemies of the Jewish people, and would be thought most unlikely to display an act of love to a Jew. In this way, Jesus teaches us that we must show kindness and love to all, regardless of their social standing, wealth, or political beliefs. We Catholics, refer to these acts of kindness as the Corporal and Spiritual works of mercy. The Communion Meditation, sung by Ryan J. Boyle, retells the parable and goes further by relating this story to our daily lives. In this way, we become closer to God, and make all of our "Samaritans", our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Dear Holy Cross Friends,

Thank you so very much for the exceptional way you have helped us reach out to those who are in such need through the annual HOPE Appeal. Your support in 2018 was heart warming!

In the past year you have helped nearly 230,000 individuals in 121 parishes across the 7 counties that make up the Diocese of Syracuse! This help included life-saving food, especially for families and children. Over 95,000 individuals have received food assistance this year. Those who visit our hospitals receive the benefit of Catholic chaplains who offer support and comfort to the patient as well as families. Because of your generous support many of the 4467 young people in our diocese who long for a Catholic education are afforded that opportunity through tuition assistance. The diocese supports refugee families in our area. Each year many individuals who have come to our wonderful country have been assisted with resettlement services, language skills, and housing. Each year your HOPE Appeal donations support the education of our seminarians, the future servants of your church! These are some of the most visible ways that HOPE Appeal monies help those within our diocese, but I assure you there are even more who are helped each day. Together, we can be the hands of our Lord who brings comfort to those who are most vulnerable and need to experience God's love.

This year our parish HOPE Appeal goal is $113,165. As you know, 50% of any overage above goal comes directly back to Holy Cross parish to support our work in evangelization, education, faith formation, and youth ministry in order to further the mission of our parish. I am asking each family to consider a pledge of $325 (less than .90 cents per day ~ less than the cost of a bottle of water or Coffee!) The average priest gift was over $700! This shows how much your priests believe in the work that Hope Appeal makes possible! Some people have asked if I can guarantee that Hope Appeal donations do not go to pay for the clergy scandal. I can guarantee that, and personally know that our contributions, including my personal contribution, goes to the programs that I have mentioned above in order to serve the people of our diocese.

PLEASE – those of you, who are able, prayerfully consider increasing your pledge this year. Remember, this is our diocese and the ONLY annual campaign that serves our needy brothers and sisters in this manner.

PLEASE – If you have not been a part of the HOPE Appeal in the past, offer your support this year. This is our parishes' way of bringing Christ to those most in need. Please be part of our family effort!

May God continue to grant you joy and abundant blessings throughout the year.

Most gratefully yours,

Rev. John Kurgan

Today's Gospel, from Luke 10, tells us: "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being, with all your strength, and with all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself." Jesus replied to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live."

A Syracuse.com article on June 23, 2019, by Tyler Lowell:

Syracuse ranks as one of the top 10 cities in the U.S. for number of refugees resettled per capita, leading thousands of new Americans to call this corner of New York State home.

By definition, a "refugee" is a person forced to leave their home country to escape war, violence or persecution. Resettlement refers to a government's careful selection of the most vulnerable individuals who can't return to their home country or any of the nearby ones.

Refugees, or new Americans as they're called in Syracuse, can't apply for resettlement themselves. They must be identified by the United Nations as extremely vulnerable, such as having medical needs, being a woman or child at risk, or a survivor of violence or torture. Anyone who has committed serious crimes or might be a security threat is ineligible.

Refugee Assistance Committee: Holy Cross volunteers befriended a refugee family from Afghanistan who was referred to us by Catholic Charities Refugee Resettlement. For the past 2 years we have been privileged to help them to adapt to life in Syracuse. So many cultural adjustments are required of them, but they frequently express gratitude that they are able to live in a safe place without fearing for their lives. Over several days last month, volunteers helped to paint living space at the rental home where the family resides: Thank you to Mary Ann McCaffrey, Joan Willard, Roger Schafer, Cindi Gamage, Patty Kirshner Matt Stano & MaryBeth Smith. If you would like to help with the next painting project, to provide reading help or to help in another way, contact Beth for more info: beth@holycrossdewitt.org.
